pappayg d868ddde6e elviyasl - 01/28/2022. And here is the sequel! I am very glad that you like my posts about "What if ...". And I am sure that such stories will appear again and again. But why not share with you the story that I wrote right after I made this drawing? This is a story about a girl who fell in love with a guy from her own city and ended up in a very unpleasant role as a rival. And I, damn it, really hope that you will recognize in this character one of your friends! Sincerely yours Pappayg
